ADA Policy - Motion to approve updates to the ADA Policy recommended by IDOT by Schubert, seconded by Boyd. All aye. Motion carried.

PCOM Transportation Plan - Nollman-Hodge reported emailing the plan to Board members. The PCOM Transportation Plan is updated every 5 years. Nollman-Hodge thanked all who were involved in compiling information for the plan. Motion to approve the PCOM Transportation Plan by Copeland, seconded by Schubert. All aye. Motion carried.

IDOT Visit – Nollman-Hodge reported on the 8/27/19 IDOT visit in the Managing Directors report. Nollman-Hodge stated that the visit went very well. A tour of the main office and Centralia Maintenance garage was given, SCT policies, Maintenance and Procurement procedures were discussed in detail, bus inspections were done, and a visit was made to the Transportation Center. Mr. Innis, SCT’s IDOT rep recommended that we make an update to our ADA policy by replacing the word “wheelchair” with “mobility device”. He also recommended adding SCT’s contact information to the SCT Title VI policy. All recommendations have been completed. The last recommendation was updating SCT’s Procurement Policy to show new federal threshold for large and micro purchases and to update the policy stating the specific disciplinary actions for employees and board members that violate the Code of Conduct section of the Procurement Policy. Mr. Innis stated that the visit had gone well and SCT was doing a great job.

LED Sign Bid Results – Clift reported on the bid opening at the Finance Committee meeting, receiving 2 bids in response to the bid solicitation for LED signage and message boards to be installed at the McCord Street and Locust Street locations. The first bid was received from T Ham Signs of Mt. Vernon, IL in the combined amount of $66,076. The second bid received was from Global Dynamic Technology of Salem, Oregon in the combined amount of $62,360.51. Clift stated bid specs will be reviewed by IT which will take some time. LED signs will be provided thru the DTIF Grant of several years back. A motion by Rodden to accept the Global Dynamics bid of $62,360.51 pending Clift and IT’s review of the documents, seconded by Boyd. All aye. Motion carried.
Goals Presentation – Nollman-Hodge presented the 2019 – 2020 Accomplishments, Future Plans and Goals of SCT.

ADJOURN - On a motion by Copeland, seconded by Schubert, the Board meeting was adjourned.
